

The LECs should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. Chairman Powell, please do not permit big business to evade competition with small-business ISPs. I am an employee of a small-business retail store and know that when giant corporations overwhelm independent businesses, they damage individuals and the whole local community.